1,558 RECEIVE DEGREES
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

A total of 1,558 persons received degrees at the University of Montana during the 73rd annual commencement ceremonies June 7.

During the exercises in Harry Adams Field House, 1,227 received bachelor degrees. 272 received masters' degrees, 24 received doctorates, and 34 received the juris doctorate, an advanced professional law degree.

Deans of the colleges presented the degree candidates, and UM President Robert T. Pantzer conferred the degrees.

Jack H. Vaughn, former Peace Corps director, received an honorary doctorate in science.

Other events during the commencement ceremonies included a prizes and awards assembly, Army Reserve Officer Training Corps commissioning exercises, and commissioning of the Air Force ROTC students.

Degree recipients included:
